Dear Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Fellows,

This newsletter is your one-stop-shop for professional development opportunities. It includes information on new events, career workshops, and resources to help you succeed in your academic and professional journeys.

New Events and Opportunities

- Postdoc Specific Events: We are excited to announce a series of postdoc-specific events focusing on professional development, networking, and career advancement. Look out for details in the upcoming weeks.
- Career Workshops: Return to career workshops as announced. These workshops will help you develop skills in resume writing, interviewing, and job search strategies.
- Graduate Student Council: The Graduate Student Council will be holding meetings to discuss the upcoming academic year's programming and plans. Join us for updates on events and opportunities.
- Donut Days: OGPS is looking forward to bringing back Donut Days, a beloved event that celebrates the achievements of our students and provides a break from the daily grind.
- Annual Reviews: Graduate students and postdoctoral fellows should be reviewed, in writing, at least once during every year of their tenure. If you have any questions about conducting reviews, please reach out to OGPS at (504) 861-3084.

Miscellaneous

- Career Services: Assistant position in the Newcomb Art Museum.
- Departmental Events: We are also planning to bring back departmental events with guest speakers, workshops, and networking opportunities.
- Student Organizations: We are working with student organizations on their events to ensure that they are well-received and attended.

OGPS is already looking forward to next spring and a return to a full calendar of programs. We plan to bring back Donut Days for the spring semester.

Reach out sooner rather than later to get involved in these events and opportunities.

Thank you for your dedication and hard work. We look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events and workshops.

Sincerely,
