

Graduate Council Meeting Agenda

January 10, 2018

1. Approval of December Minutes
2. Grad Council Meeting Dates for Spring 2018
 - o February 7
 - o March 14
3. Tania Tetlow – Campus Climate Survey
 - a. General information
 - b. Things Grad Council can do to help:
 - i. Find out how faculty (including adjuncts) are getting reviewed by chairs, both for teaching efficacy and any issues reported in student evaluations.
 - ii. Look for ways within schools to harness the energy of graduate students who are interested in helping find solutions. The Taylor Center, for instance, has a program which includes male ethnographers interviewing male students
 - iii. Make sure faculty in professional schools who might otherwise have confidentiality concerns know that in their role as Tulane faculty, they are mandated reporters
 - iv. Encourage your schools – this is not a moment to be tone deaf or gender unaware
 - c. Jan. 31 event will be in the LBC. We've offered to live stream to downtown, though people can also watch it on Gibson.
4. Announcements
 - a. Graduate and Professional Education Summit on Saturday, January 20, 8:30 - 4:30, LBC.
 - i. Tables will be available to Tulane graduate and professional schools and programs to promote themselves to Tulane undergraduates
 - b. Online MSW is about to launch
