Dear Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Fellows,

This email is a follow-up on our recent survey to gather insights and ideas for career-related programs; with students and postdocs in mind. We have been asked to identify ways that we can improve our climate with regards to support for career service and the office of graduate and postdoctoral studies (OGPS).

The Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Climate Survey is likewise being used to gather information in the past year. We have had the Sexual Misconduct Climate Survey and the Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Climate Survey at the university level, as well as many smaller requests, questionnaires, and surveys. These surveys are just the beginning of the work we are doing, as those of you have ideas for career service support, and we appreciate all answers and insight.

Regarding career service support, here are the resources you have access to:

Please take a moment to complete our survey. This survey will directly impact the career services programs. If you're ever unsure about how a survey will be used, please feel free to ask. The data gleaned from that survey will be used to inform our plans to make Tulane University a more welcoming community for all Tulanians.

Thank you for your participation and input.

Sincerely,

[OGPS Team]
