Dear Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Fellows,

This email was sent to [email].

Sincerely,

Orleans or head off on adventures elsewhere!

On a lighter note, we also plan to have donuts and coffee once or twice a month in the Graduate Student Commons. We hope to see you there!

 Regards,

Amelia Manning,
Assistant Director
Graduate Studies and Administrative Program

NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Registration is now open for the upcoming Summer Dissertation Success Cohort. This cohort will focus on helping students prepare for dissertation writing and graduation. The cohort will consist of 20 PhD students who will be working on their dissertations this summer. The set-up meeting for this new summer cohort will take place on May 17 at 12:00 PM. Everyone is welcome to come and learn more about this cohort and register for the meeting.

CI is a social venture accelerator for Tulane graduate students that connects them to local mentors and experts, and equips them with the tools to turn social impact into social change. CI was founded by one of our own, Dr. Lauren Lukkarila, and is supported by the Tulane Office of Postgraduate and Academic Success (OGPS). The CI Fellows program will be accepting applications soon, so keep an eye on our website for more information.

For any kind of concern at Tulane, all members of the Tulane community can contact the Counseling Services hotline at (504) 688-7000. Counseling Services offers a variety of services including access to mental health and overall well-being. Services offered include academic counseling, career counseling, and consultation services to the Tulane community. For more information, please visit our website.

The National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity is an excellent resource for graduate students. They offer regular workshops, webinars, and consultation services to help students navigate their graduate careers. To learn more about the National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity, please visit their website.

Please note, this is to report issues or concerns and is not designed to discuss the details of any cases.
